UPCOMING CONCERT STAGE / JANUARY 21

BARBARA SILVERMAN & COLBY MADDOX

Barbara Silverman and Colby Maddox elegantly stir together two strong voices, fiddle and mandolin, guitar and percussion and deftly traverse a wide range of traditional, swing and country music.

Acclaimed as a "stunning vocalist, master teacher, and folk festival in a box,"

Barb is a founding member of the renowned Laketown Buskers who appeared several times on Prairie Home Companion, and she plays a mean washboard.

Colby has toured with Special Consensus Bluegrass Band, shared the stage with many of his heroes like Tim O'Brien, J.D. Crowe and John Hartford, and played briefly in a duo with young banjo wizard Noam Pikelnny. Both have been on the faculty at the Old Town School of Folk Music since the 1990s.

★ OPENING: WATTLE & DAUB

Musical duo and married singer/songwriters, Wattle & Daub (Tim & Susan Mocarski) will get the evening burning with their raw yet melodious brand of roadhouse-folk and outlaw love songs. This creative couple comes armed with a brace of bold, inventive, sometimes highly personal originals and choice covers that are equal parts spirited and gritty, poignant and tender.

UPCOMING CONCERT STAGE @ VILLAGE HALL / FEBRUARY 18

DIAMONDS IN THE RUST

Out of the heart of the Midwest, two veteran Michigan duos join forces in a new quintet: Diamonds in the Rust.

Annie & Rod Capps and Jan Krist & Jim Bizer (with percussionist/composer Alan Finkbeiner) are each already well-known for their performing prowess. Everyone sings, everyone plays multiple instruments, and the band boasts a trio of respected, award-winning songwriters. The repertoire also includes a few choice selections from the rich musical history of the place where they grew and learned their craft.

Perhaps best of all is the palpable joy and camaraderie that happens between good musicians who are also good friends. The band exists to share this with their audiences – the connection that happens when everyone is caught up in the music.

★ OPENING: DAVID CALLAN

Opening the evening's concert will be singer and guitarist, David Callan (he's also folk club Treasurer). Dave will charm you with songs of love, hope and despair delivered in his haunting high tenor. Performing both original songs and familiar covers, Dave's adept fingerstyle touch on guitar always brands them with a distinctly warm and gentle flavor.

Open Stage / Second Sundays

The second Sunday of each month is our Open Stage night, hosted by Scott Engstrom. Come out and enjoy some great local musical talent! Non-performing listeners are always encouraged and will be pleasantly surprised with the diverse musical styles represented. There's a little something for everyone.

Anyone who would like to perform is encouraged to do so.

You'll never find a more supportive audience than at the LCFC. Sign-up begins at 6:30 PM and the music starts at 7:00. Each performer is allowed up to two songs spanning about 10 minutes. If time permits—and it usually does—artists can perform an additional song near evening's end. (suggested $3 donation)

Song Circle / Fourth Sundays

On the fourth Sunday of each month we hold our Song Circle. Members and non-members are always welcome. Come out to play or just listen.

Make music, learn new songs, make new friends.

Marcia Krieger, along with other members of the LCFC, hosts our Song Circle. It's a casual opportunity to kick back, play some music and meet others. The participants form a circle—each one in turn can choose to play a song, ask another participant for a song, or pass. It's a chance to lead songs or to join in with others. We keep moving around the circle until it's time to call it a night. (suggested $3 donation)

Behind the Song / Check Schedule

We are thrilled to (occasionally) present a special Behind the Song concert, hosted by Chuck VanderVennet. These unique events are an intimate exploration of the personal craft of songwriting from one artist's perspective.

Entertainment and inspiration.

Part concert, part interview, Chuck speaks candidly with the featured artist, and deftly exposes the backstory underlying song origins, stylistic choices, and the process of songwriting. Chuck also provides an opportunity for audience interaction, voicing any burning questions attendees might have. These are inspirational evenings for any music lover.

Our Venues

Grayslake Heritage Center

The Grayslake Heritage Center located at 164 Hawley Street in downtown Grayslake is our home for the majority of club events, including Open Stage, Song Circle and most concerts. This intimate space in a building rich with history and warmth of community is in perfect alignment with the folk music tradition we proselytize at our club events.

The Grayslake Heritage Center & Museum has become well known for assembling and displaying a wide variety of fascinating exhibits centered on Grayslake history. And we are part of that rich history! The Lake County Folk Club was founded in October 1991 at the Last Chance Saloon in downtown Grayslake.

Grayslake Village Hall

The LCFC is very excited to occasionally host some concerts at the beautiful Grayslake Village Hall theater space. We will make it clear in which performances will take place at this venue—just look for the icon on the left in concert listings.

The Village Hall is located at 10 South Seymour Avenue in downtown Grayslake, just west of the railroad tracks, and just a couple of blocks away from our typical venue, the Heritage Center.
